(wild Jamboline), Kan!, Krishna", Upakulya, Snaundi and Magadhi are the names of Pippali (Piper LongunO, while 'is roots are called Granthikam (Piper officinarum). Ushanam is Maricham (Piper Nigrum), while Vishvam and .Mahaushadham are the names of Shunthi (dry gingiber). Vyosham is the name of Trikatu (Shunti, Pippali And Maricham) which is also called Tryushanam. LSngali, Haiini and Shreyasi are fVe names of Gajapippali (Pothes officinalis), Trayamana ;s called Trdyanti (Thalictrum Faliolosum), and Utsa* is Vahuvaha". Vanhi, Shiki, and terms signifying fire, are the names of Chitrakam (Plumbgo Zeylanica). Shadgrantha, Ugra*, Shveta" and Heimavatai are the names of Vacha" (Sweet Flag). Vrikshaka, Shukra, Vatsaka and Girimallika. are the names of Kutaja (Wrightia Anti-dysenterica), and Arishtam, Indrayava and Kalinga are the names of Kutaja-seeds, Kunti, Hareunka*, and terms denoting, cloud, are the names of Mustakah (Mariscus Cyprus). Ela (cardemon) is called Vahula> the smaller variety is called Truti. Padma, Bha"rgi, and Kanji are called Brahmana-Yashtika (clerodendron-Siphonanthus). Tejini, Tikta-balkala and Madhurasd are the names of Murva (Sansevieria Zeylanica). Mahdnimva, Vrikshanimva, and Dipyakas are the names of Jamani (Ptychotis) Vidanga (seeds of Embelia Ribus) and Hingu are called Amatham. Ajaji is the name of Jirakan (cumin seeds), Kdcavi is Upakanchika* (Nigella Sativa or Indica). Katuka and Tikta are the names of Katu-rohini (Black Hellibore.) Tagaram, Natam, Chakram, Chocham, and Tvacham are the names of Var&nga-kam, (Cinnamon Bark.) Hriveram (Pavoflia Odorata) is synony-mous with Udichyam, and Valakam, and terras signifying water, are also used to Denote this plant. Hemava, and terms denoting elephant, are the names of Nftgakeshara (Mesua-ferrea). Asrik, Kashmira, and Bahlikam are the names of "Kunikum (saffron). Compounds signifying Iron denote Ayuguru. Yavishta,* Prachina, Kaliki, Sushabi, Toshanasbi and Rambhi are the names of Kadali (Plantain). Puram,